

"FIVE QUESTIONS WITH FIVE CONCLUSIONS"

ROMANS 8:31-39

I. WE HAVE A STATE THAT IS UNTOUCHABLE (8:31)

- A. God Is For Us
- B. God's Verdict Far Outweighs Any Opposition Of Any Consequence

II. WE HAVE A SUPPLY THAT IS IMMEASUREABLE (8:32)

- A. God's Being "For Us" Has Its Deepest Expression And Most Profound Foundation In The Fact That He "Spared Not His Own Son."
- B. God Has Provided Us With An Inventory Which Guarantees There Is No Deprivation Of Anything Important For Our Eternity.

III. WE HAVE A SELECTION THAT IS UNASSAILABLE (8:33)

- A. No Accusations Against Us Will Be Entertained
 - 1. Definition Of Accusation
 - 2. Sources Of Accusation
- B. God Portrays Himself In Two Glorious Arenas
 - 1. As Elector
 - 2. As Justifier

IV. WE HAVE A SALVATION THAT IS UNCONQUERABLE (8:34)

- A. Here Is The Second Great "No Condemnation"
- B. Here Are Four Conclusive Evidences

V. WE HAVE A RELATIONSHIP THAT IS INSEPARABLE (8:35-39)

- A. Paul Provides A List Of Seven Notorious Dividers (8:35-37)
- B. Paul Is Further Persuaded Of No Possibility Of Separation After Considering Six More Realms That Might Conceivably Pose A Threat To Our Security (8:38-39)