

THE LAST WORDS OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST REVELATION 22:12-17

I. THE LAST STATEMENTS OF THE LORD BEGIN WITH HIS MAKING CERTAIN PROMISES TO US (22:12)

A. He Is Coming Quickly

1. His Return Is Imminent
2. His Return Will Be Sudden

B. His Reward Will Be With Him (II Corinthians 5:10-11)

II. THE LAST STATEMENTS OF THE LORD CONTINUE WITH HIS MAKING THREE IDENTIFYING STATEMENTS ABOUT HIMSELF (22:13-15)

A. Since Several Of These Terms Are Used Interchangeably Throughout Scripture For Christ & The Father, We Can Assume The Indirect Affirmation Of Co-Equality Within The Trinity

B. Since Each Term Contains A Reference To Specific Chronology We Can Assume A Direct Statement Of Christ's Eternality

C. Since These Statements Are True They Carry With Them, Positive & Negative Ramifications For Men

1. A Beatitude For Some (22:14)
2. A Warning For Others (22:15)

III. THE LAST STATEMENTS OF THE LORD CONCLUDE WITH HIS EVEN FURTHER IDENTIFYING HIMSELF WITH MESSIANIC TERMINOLOGY (22:16-17)

A. This Is The Only Time The Lord Refers To Himself As "Jesus" (22:16)

B. A Universal Invitation Is Uttered (22:17)
